

Kochi University of Technology

Master's program

Thesis assessment criteria

1. The research has been undertaken by the applicant on his/her own initiative.
2. The thesis is in the proper thesis format and the development of the point of the research is clear.
3. The significance, necessity, purpose and method of the research are described explicitly.
4. Previous studies on the topic have been thoroughly investigated and are properly cited.
5. The analysis and study in the research were done logically and the results and conclusion are clearly stated.
6. In the thesis defense, the presentation of the research was logical and explicit and questions were answered precisely.