

Interview Section

Part 1 Icebreaking Questions (approx. 2 min.)

Part 2 Comprehension questions (approx. 5 min.)

- No. 1 Please look at page 4, underline number 1.
Is Peter Freeth⁽¹⁾ favorable towards the use of smartphones in school? Why does he feel that way?
- No. 2 Please look at page 4, underline number 2.
Is Astrid Natley⁽²⁾ favorable towards the use of smartphones in school? Why does she feel that way?
- No. 3 Please look at page 5, underline number 3.
Tara Blount⁽³⁾ says, "Kids are actually socializing again properly." What does she mean by that?
- No. 4 Please look at page 6, underline number 4.
What does Alison Gill⁽⁴⁾ worry about?
- No. 5 Please look at page 6, underline number 5.
Kay Bellwood⁽⁵⁾ says, "A ban would be direct discrimination under the equality act." What does she mean by that?

Part 3 Discussion (approx. 8 min.)

- No. 1 Do you have a smartphone?
Yes: In what ways does it help you? Give some examples.
No: If you had one, in what ways could it help you?
- No. 2 In your opinion, should schools ban, restrict or allow smartphones in school?

Writing Section

【Directions】

Smartphones have become increasingly popular, and are now a powerful gadget that we can hardly live without. There has been a much public debate about whether or not to allow smartphones in schools. Write a short essay to express your opinions on this topic.