Overview:

This workshop will be held in the second time in Kochi according to “the US-Japan Collaborative Research and Education Effort for Synthesis and Applications of Functional Nanomaterials. Advanced Nanomaterials and Application”. This time, the workshop will be the joint workshop with track 3: Electronic and Photonic Systems Engineering in “The 8th International Symposium on Frontier Technology (ISFT)”. The research topics related to functional material synthesis, characterization and applications will be accepted including research field from: Electrical Engineering, Computer Engineering, Mechanical Engineering, Biomedical Engineering.

Paper Submission

Submit an abstract in 300 words, prepared in A4 size. Write the text in one. Color charts are available. It is recommended to use Times New Roman fonts for the text. Convert it to PDF and submit.

Submission Deadline: Jun.28, 2024.
